

Facebook Page Terms of Use

The Psychology for a Safe Climate Facebook Page aims to disseminate information about our activities and to raise awareness of the psychological impacts of climate change. We are growing our network so that we can provide more support and workshops to the community. To find out how you can get involved, visit PSC's website.

PSC encourages people who use our page to share your comments, photos and videos.

Articles and events displayed on the page are not necessarily endorsements, or representations of the views of this organisation, unless they are events hosted by us.

We are a small, volunteer-run community organisation so we may not be able to respond quickly to all comments, messages and requests. Please be patient and we will endeavour to respond as soon as possible.

We aim to create safe, healthy spaces for discussion and sharing emotions, as such, we expect posts and comments on this page to be posted in good will, with the aim of supporting and helping others.

We will remove any postings that are:

- Abusive, defamatory, obscene or offensive
- Fraudulent, deceptive or misleading
- In denial of climate change
- In violation of any intellectual property right of PSC or any other person or organisation
- In violation of any law or regulation
- Off topic or unhelpful
- Otherwise inappropriate

Please share relevant events and appropriate climate psychology resources, but do not post or post links to advertisements, commercial solicitations, spam or malicious software.

Psychology for a Safe Climate has the right (but not the obligation) to monitor all content and to reject or remove any inappropriate or offensive content and the right to block the user.

By following our Facebook Page, you agree to adhere to Facebook's Statement of Rights and Responsibilities.

We encourage you to review the privacy policy of any website, application or other digital service that you use. We are not responsible for the accuracy, accessibility or legality of the material contained on any destination website, application or service. The privacy policy and terms of use (if any) posted on the destination third-party website, application or service will govern your activities.

To learn more about how we protect your privacy, please read PSC's Privacy Policy.